Dear Harold:

Just wanted to drop you a line to say hello and to let you know that we still have you in our Prayers. (In fact my children have their friends Praying for you in Sunday school class.) Thier maker. Me. very Proud.

Was unhappy to read Jim Moore's sarcasm about you in his Book, a Conspiracy of one. It's very sad. It seems that Jim's inferiority is showing on every Page. I guess he cannot accept that the U.S. Government is less than honest. Take care, and know you are in our hearts.
